

Teaching and Publishing Mathematics and Science in the Society of Jesus in Early Modern Europe

Workshop

Bergische Universität Wuppertal
June 12-13, 2013
Neuer Senatssaal (K.11.07)

Wednesday, June 12

- | | |
|-------|--|
| 14:30 | VOLKER REMMERT (Wuppertal): Welcome |
| 15:00 | GEERT VANPAEMEL (Leuven): Theses, textbooks and reprints. Patterns of circulation in Jesuit mathematics |
| 16:00 | Coffee break |
| 16:30 | JUAN NAVARRO-LOIDI (San Sebastián): Jesuits, Mathematics and Military Art in Spain during the Old Regime |
| 18:15 | RIVKA FELDHAY (Tel Aviv): Baroque Ghosts: The Jesuits between the Old and the New science |

Please note: The last talk of the day will be held within the IZWT-Kolloquium (room N.10.20).

Thursday, June 13

- | | |
|-------|--|
| 9:00 | MICHAEL ELAZAR (Tel Aviv): Jesuit Dissemination of the 'Hipparchian' Impetus: A Step towards the Mathematization of Motion? |
| 10:00 | Coffee break |
| 10:30 | SUSAN KLAIBER (Winterthur): Architecture in Early Modern Jesuit Mathematics Publications |
| 11:30 | HENRIQUE LEITÃO (Lisbon): From Lisbon to Beijing and back: Jesuit scientific activities in China and their impact in the Portuguese Province |